Conditions Excellent.

General Livestock Agent Conway of the Santa Fe, who was recently in the city, was seen by a representative of the Ardmoreite and was asked with reference to conditions in the Chickasaw Nation. Mr. Conway has just made a tour of the line. The weather, he says, has been fine and farmers are so busy that it is impossible to see them and discuss matters. Crops are beginning to improve everywhere since the rain ceased and prospects are very flattering at this time.

Mr. Conway says that there is a very satisfactory movement of cattle to markets from local points on the Santa Fe. Over 100 cars of fat cattle were moved last Saturday to the markets in Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago. He thinks that prices will improve and that the business this year will be very satisfactory.

W. G. Cecil.

Resolutions of respect to the mem- ory of Bro. W. G. Cecil, one of the char- ter members of Ardmore Council No. 151.

While at home and surrounded by his loving wife and little son, the great reaper, Death, came and claimed our friend and brother.

He was a faithful member of our order, always ready to exemplify its teachings, advance its interests and benefit its members.

We recognized in him a man of unceasing energy and untiring ambi- tion, his friends were all those whom it was his pleasure to meet—they were proud of him and he was loyal to them—and his death has created a void not easily filled in the business world.

In the business community he was considered with the greatest favor; in social circles he was regarded with the highest esteem; in our coun- cil he was looked upon as a brother worthy of emulation, and in his fam- ily circle his life was pure and con- genial.

In fact, he was a noble man, the ex- emplification of a characteristic mem- ber of the Order of United Commercial Travelers.

To his bereaved widow and little son we offer our tenderest sympathy, invoking the aid of Him who holdeth the seas in the hollow of His hands to dry their tears and soothe their grief.

Resolved, That a copy of these res- olutions be sent to Mrs. Cecil, to the Sample Case, published in the local paper and spread on the Memorial Book of our council.
